BCBOA website update from Jeff – Data/Info resource for BCBOA officials

See Jeff if you haven't been receiving BCBOA emails and get added to the list

Motion to accept business – Jamison

Second - Beckman

Approved unanimously

Rules/Mechanics

- Breakout session for mechanics work for newer officials by Baller/Jamison/Johnson
- Rick reviewing the "Tower Philosophy" – Its focus is on application of the rules to maintain balance in the contest
 - Understand the game you are walking into... Skill level, Rivalry?
 - Own your primary and be ready to assist your crew in theirs
 - PRIMARY should take it to the table if we have a double whistle
 - KNOW THE RULES – Inside and Out
- Tower Philosophy slideshow will be available as a resource on website

- Rick is a proponent of video as a big asset to his in-season training

Video presentation

- Badin fight video – Be aware of trouble matchups that could develop
- Bailout video – use approved mechanics at all times to avoid confusion
- Blarge video – Post and hold. Know who's in the primary to make the call. Don't oversell the Block/Charge to help avoid a potential blarge
- Triple Whistle – another example of post and hold, stay in your PCA. Good communication.
- Know your lines

Mike Stanger – New SWOC Assignor

Emphasized a point about how quick things can go wrong and how important it is to maintain focus and attention if/when a fight breaks out

Mike is replacing Bill Klamo with assigning games in the SWOC
